The VIII Polish International Floristic Championship
26 February- 1 March 2014
(Wednesday-Saturday)
Poznań International Fair

The Polish Association of Engineers and Technicians of Horticulture (SITO) Poznań Branch as a member of The International Floristic Federation FLORINT - International Florists Organization has a pleasure to invite you to The VIII Polish International Floristic Championship 26 February – 1 March 2014 at the ground of Poznań International Fair (from Wednesday to Saturday).

The competition is a chance for Polish and foreign florists to show all their skills such as ability and creativity to improvise flower arrangements. It let them know the latest trends and techniques as well as to exchange experience. Winners of both age groups have a chance to participate at The European Floristic Championship.

We cordially invite florists from Poland and foreign countries.

During the competition participants realize some different tasks and are divided into 2 groups:

Group A - florists over 24 years

Group B - juniors by 24 years

Each participant can invite an assistant who helps to prepare the plant material at the stand. His/her duty is also to clean the stand after each part of competition and provide all necessary material for the next task. Each arrangement has to be done individually by competitors.

All competitors have their own stands as well as the working tables at the Pavilion. Positions of stands are given by drawing lots just before the competition.

There is a border line at each stand but not the walls, lighting or any other facilities. If one needs such facilities like high walls, lighting etc. then is requested to contact organizers in advance.

Tasks 1, 2 and 3 in the group A and tasks 1 and 2 in the group B are carried out at the basis of the material provided by participants and are realized at the drawn positions. The task "Surprise" is carried out at the basis of the material provided by organizers and is realized at the place fixed by them.

Task 1 at the group A is scheduled for 26 February 2014 while the remaining tasks at the group A and all the tasks at the group B are scheduled for 27 February 2014. They are all realized in the front of audience.
