The IX Polish International Floristic Championship
24-27 February 2016
(Wednesday-Saturday)
Poznań International Fair

The Polish Association of Engineers and Technicians of Horticulture (SITO) Poznań has a pleasure to invite you to The IX Polish International Floristic Championship 24-27 February 2016 at the ground of Poznań International Fair in Pavilion 5A (from Wednesday to Saturday).

The competition is a chance to show all their skills such as ability and creativity to improvise flower arrangements. It let them know the latest trends and techniques as well as to exchange experience.

We cordially invite florists from Poland and foreign countries.

During the competition participants realize some different tasks and are divided into 2 groups:

Group A - florists over 24 years

Group B - juniors by 24 years

Each participant can invite an assistant who helps to prepare the plant material at the stand. His/her duty is also to clean the stand after each part of competition and provide all necessary material for the next task. Each arrangement has to be done individually by competitors.

All competitors have their own stands as well as the working tables at the Pavilion. Positions of stands are given by drawing lots just before the competition.

There is a border line at each stand but not the walls, lighting or any other facilities. If one needs such facilities like high walls, lighting etc. then is requested to contact organizers in advance.

Tasks 1, 2 and 3 in the group A and tasks 1 and 2 in the group B are carried out at the basis of the material provided by participants and are realized at the drawn positions. The task "Suprise" is carried out at the basis of the material provided by organizers and is realized at the place fixed by them.

Task 1 at the group A is scheduled for 24 February 2016 while the remaining tasks at the group A and all the tasks at the group B are scheduled for 25 February 2016. All tasks are realized in the front of audience.
